Executive Proclamation
Office of the Governor

Whereas, Terry L. Kline was born on February 13, 1952, to Dan and Fern Kline at Leola, South Dakota, and received his education in Leola and Northern State College, in Aberdeen, South Dakota; and,

Whereas, Terry married Marilyn Hoffman on February 1, 1969, to this union three children were born: Ryan David, Eric Daniel, and Heather Lee, and they now have eight beautiful grandchildren; and,

Whereas, Terry excelled in his career in the sales field, having been very instrumental in securing many of the nearly 2,100 Super 8 Motel franchises in the United States and Canada; and,

Whereas, Terry served Super 8 franchisees for 18 years, plus Cendant Hotel Group brands with a work ethic and foundation based upon the Golden Rule, "do unto others as you would have them do unto you"; and,

Whereas, Terry will observe his retirement from Super 8 and Cendant Hotel Group, Inc. with all the good wishes, fanfare and celebration such a milestone warrants, as his friends and relatives gather to celebrate and honor him on September 9, 2004, and to celebrate his life and the camaraderie of the day; and,

Whereas; It is fitting and proper for the Governor to make note of this milestone in the life of a person who has lived an exemplary life for all to emulate:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim September 9, 2004, as in South Dakota, and I join with his family and friends in wishing him well in his retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Eighth Day of September in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Four.

M. Michael Rounds
